

NOTICE OF APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT OF PREMARIN/PREPLUS CLASS ACTION

If you or someone close to you used Premarin with progestin or Premplus and later developed breast cancer, this notice may affect your legal rights.

On April 2, 2015, the Supreme Court of British Columbia approved a settlement of the class action Stanway v. Wyeth Canada Inc., et al. This class action concerned allegations that the Defendants' hormone therapy drugs, Premplus, and Premarin when used in combination with a progestin, cause breast cancer.

Who is Eligible for the Settlement?

To be eligible to participate in this settlement you must be a member of the class, or the estate or legal representative of a class member, and if you are not a resident of British Columbia, you must have already delivered an opt-in form in the lawsuit, on or before October 10, 2014.

The class is defined as:

“Women who were prescribed Premplus, or Premarin in combination with progestin during the Class Period and ingested Premplus, or Premarin in combination with progestin and were thereafter diagnosed with breast cancer.”

The “Class Period” runs from January 1, 1977 until December 1, 2003, inclusive.

What are the Terms of the Settlement?

You can obtain a copy of the settlement agreement by contacting Class Counsel or the Claims Administrator at the addresses below. In summary, the Defendants agreed to pay compensation to settle the allegations in the lawsuit. This money is available to compensate class members, and to pay public health insurers for their subrogated costs, as well as to pay legal fees and expenses related to the prosecution of this class action.

How Do I Make A Claim For Compensation?

Class members must submit a Claim Form and supporting medical documentation to the Claims Administrator on or before June 29, 2016. The Claims Administrator will then determine each class member's entitlement to compensation based on that supporting documentation.
