Dow Corning Appeals

March 24, 2003

The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals recently issued a schedule to submit briefs on the two remaining appeals in the Dow Corning bankruptcy case. The first brief is due on April 21, with a reply brief due by May 21, and final briefs are due June 18.

The Court has agreed to expedite the appeals. We do not know when the Court will announce its ruling on the appeals.

Claims packages were sent out to US claimants on February 18, 2003. If you received these forms and you are part of the BC Settlement (this includes all Canadian claimants) please disregard them, they do not pertain to you.

You will receive claims forms for the BC settlement once the appeals have concluded, an effective date is set and an administrator is appointed by the BC Supreme Court.
