

Press Release

VANCOUVER, B.C.

A class action has been certified by the B.C. Supreme Court in Moretti et al. v. Facebook, Inc., S.C.B.C. No. VLC S-1813727 against Huawei Technologies Co Ltd and Sony Group Corporation for settlement purposes only on [DATE].

The class action has been certified against Huawei and Sony only on behalf of all Facebook users in Canada between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2018. The lawsuit is continuing against Facebook and the other remaining Defendants.

What is the class action about?

The lawsuit alleges that Facebook secretly gave major device manufacturers access to users' personal information, without users' knowledge or consent and in breach of their privacy. The Court has appointed [NAMES] as representative plaintiffs.

Through this settlement, neither Huawei, nor Sony, nor any of their affiliates are admitting liability. Facebook and the other Defendants deny the allegations, which have not been proven, and are defending the lawsuit.

Where can I find more information?

Settlement documents, opt-out forms, and court documents are available on [WEBSITE].
